

[JAN 27, 1984]

Side A Interviewer: Mary Ellen DuBois

- 0:05 Introduction
- 0:45 Born in Sacramento, same house as mother born.
Railroads came; ice was delivered to door.
- 2:45 Ice cream man came, other items were ordered and delivered.
- 3:30 Limits of the city.
- 3:50 Schools
- 5:10 Father came to Sacramento in covered wagon at age 3.
- 6:10 Father started California Fruit Exchange.
Mother's father a bookbinder.
- 7:15 Brother and sister
- 7:50 Went to college to be a nurse
- 8:15 Relationship with brother and sister
- 9:15 Free time activities when growing up: Tennis, horse and buggy rides, church activities, Sunday School picnics
- 12:05 Churches in Sacramento
- 12:55 First automobile in Sacramento
- 13:40 Vehicles pulled by horses: fire engines, sprinkler wagons, street cars
- 15:40 Dressmaker in home for a week
- 16:20 Decision to go to Berkeley after junior college
Life on campus
- 17:45 First job, then more training
- 18:20 Met husband; husband's work for West Sacramento Company, then own business, the West Sacramento Land Co.
- 20:19 West Sacramento library named for husband; other honors
- 20:45 Children: daughter and two sons
- 21:50 Volunteer work-- Girl Scouts most important
- 22:50 Average day when children were growing up
Summer home at Lake Tahoe
- 24:35 Travels
- 25:10 Voting very important; the women's suffrage movement
- 26:30 Prohibition
- 27:50 End of Side A: Fast forward to end before turning